

KRISTEN MCNARY

LME

Kristen is a Master Esthetician living in Seattle, WA. After graduating in 2018, she honed her craft in medical aesthetics providing laser and skin revision treatments. Kristen joined Sapien in 2020, specializing in advanced aesthetics.

Her passion for excellence and client care sets her apart as a service provider. She loves results oriented treatments such as microneedling and peels, but loves the opportunity to flex her vast esthetics skills. When she's not serving face, she likes cooking, exploring the city and being chill af.
